

Tartar Teen Talk

By Pat Adams

The annual Senior Class play, "The Mouse That Roared," will be presented tomorrow night in the Torrance High auditorium. The public is invited to witness the humorous satire.

Grand Duchesse Glorianna XII of Grand Fenwick will be played by Judy Allen, and the male lead, Tully Bascom, will be played by Richard Tiernan. Rehearsals have been going for several weeks, and all promises to be one long, funny riot.

Other players include: Pat Adams, Jane Allen, Gary Baker, Diane Battershell, Donna Brooks, Janene Brown, Jeff Carpenter, Mark Carpenter, Nancy Cushman, Toni Del Rosso, and Marian Denier.

(Hope he can do the same with the THS grapplers!)

Dec. 10, the International Relations Club will hold a model Geneva Conference. Members of IRC will represent the various nations during discussions of jurisdiction of International law under the International Court of Justice and on general disarmament.

Delegates will take the individual position of the countries which they represent. A model United Nations ad hoc committee last year gave the club experience and information on world affairs.

Officers of the club are: Ann Robinson, president; Pat Adams, vice president; and Phyllis Tatum, secretary-treasurer.

YESTERDAY marked the opening of the Bee Basketball Tournament with THS as the host school. The Tartars met Lawndale yesterday afternoon, and action continues today and tomorrow.

See you next week.

College Band Sets Surprise With Concert

Band director for Long Beach State College, Dr. John E. Green, who has played for thousands of people, found himself the audience for a unique band concert Sunday night.

Dr. Green, who is leaving LBSC at the end of the current semester to take a position at North Texas State University, was serenaded at his Rossmore home by the 160-member Long Beach youth band, directed by Marvin Marker.

Marker said Green had given much time and effort to help the youth band and members wanted to express their appreciation.

The band, deposited within two blocks of the Green home, paraded in quarter-block-long formation to Green's house where he and guests had just sat down to dinner.

There, in full uniform and with drum majorettes twirling their batons, they proceeded to play a concert for the astonished band director.

Don't be a cloud because you can't be a star.

THE TARTARS opened the 1963 basketball season yesterday at the Pacific Shores Tournament. Prospects for the season look good, so let's be around to encourage the Tartar squad.

Yesterday also marked the opening date of the first wrestling match of the season. The Tartars met the Redondo matmen at Redondo. This sport is one of coordination and flexibility, and offers fast and furious action for the athlete and the spectator.

Coach Webber Lawson expects the Torrance wrestlers to get their share of the victories in the Pioneer League finals, to be held in the Torrance gym.

BELATED congratulations go to the 1963 Cee football team for their undefeated season in Pioneer League competition. Captains John Randall and Ken Ihara led the 43-man team under the guiding hand of Coach Webber Lawson.

Unitarians To Present Hootenanny

Pacific Unitarian Church will stage its second annual hootenanny Friday.

Heading the list of folk singing talent will be Alta King, San Pedro artist who has appeared at the Ports O' Call Village in the port community and recently ended an engagement in Las Vegas, according to Joanne Scrivner of Torrance, who will be mistress of ceremonies.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. at the Retail Clerks Hill, 25949 Belle Porte Ave., Harbor City.

The church, which meets at Miraleste School in Palos Verdes, draws its membership from throughout the Torrance area. Proceeds from the event will be used for the church summer camp and youth programs. Tickets will be sold at the door.
